

Many people in this county will recognize one of the pictures of the above group. It is Mr. Q. B. Simmons who, on Monday evening of May 15, will represent with the other young gentlemen in the group the Coreo Debating Society of the Bowling Green Business University in its fifteenth annual debate between the Big 4 and Coreo Societies. This is one of the great school events of Bowling Green. The people of this county will watch with interest this clash of opinion. Young Simmons is a son of Rev. A. M. Simmons.

STOP WORK ON ROAD

Supervisor McKinney states that he will move the county chaingang off of the Pickens-Brevard highway May 27 and begin work on the Six Mile-Norris road by June 1. As the chaingang is the only force at work on the Pickens-Brevard road and no contract has been let for work on the road the removal of the chaingang will mean that work will stop on that road for the present. About eleven miles of this highway have been completed by the chaingang and about nine miles remain to be built by contract. It was thought that the contract for the completion of the road would have been let last month, but for some reason or other it has not been done. It is thought that work will probably be resumed on the road in June.
